

Zebra Certified Refurbished Mobile Devices

No one can do it better than Zebra

Look no further than Zebra for a trusted solution to continue business productivity and operations, before you decide to move forward with a full technology refresh. The same exceptional performance you have come to expect from new Zebra devices is now available in our certified refurbished devices. Reliable. Durable. Certified. We make sure that our certified refurbished devices perform like new and are preloaded with up-to-date licensed version of operating system software.

Transition without trouble

Whether you are waiting for the release of next-generation Zebra solutions or not yet ready to refresh your technology, Zebra Certified Refurbished Mobile Devices offer excellent performance to run your business. Plus, Zebra can provide support to guide your transition from one technology to the next.

Certainty comes standard

Only Zebra is qualified to provide Zebra Certified Refurbished Mobile Devices. Zebra has the experience, technology and components to bring new life to used Zebra mobile devices. Each Zebra Certified Refurbished Mobile Device undergoes a rigorous process, during which the operating system is reloaded, and the functionality is tested, repaired (if required) and reset to factory settings. And it comes with operating system software, assuring seamless, uninterrupted operation. Additional software applications and software support services can be provided upon request. In short, by purchasing a Zebra Certified Refurbished Mobile Device, you get more than tested technology; you get peace of mind.

What makes a Zebra Certified Refurbished Device exceptional?

- Fully tested
- Fully functional device
- Includes a new battery
- Comes with a 90-day warranty

Backing to move business forward

Know that your Zebra Certified Refurbished Mobile Devices are covered by a 90-day warranty. You also have the option of purchasing one or two years of Zebra OneCare™ service. By protecting your Zebra Certified Refurbished Mobile Device with Zebra OneCare service, you gain access to Zebra technical support, software updates and rapid turnaround times for repairs. Trust that Zebra OneCare service keeps your Zebra Certified Refurbished Mobile Devices where they are most needed—in the hands of your workforce.
